Local News

The McBride and District Chamber of Commerce works to promote and support the business of this area. They have already placed an update of the village businesses in the 1997 / 98 edition of The Millpost, a Vernon publication. This information goes to federal agencies, provincial offices, chambers of commerce and visitor and convention bureaus all the way to Alaska. The Chamber also provides an Information Service for cross-Canada publications and sends pamphlets to different Chamber of Commerce Information Centers across northern B.C. and anyone interested in moving to the area. The Chamber's main project is the maintenance of McBride and District's own canoe Information Center. This year the cost for renovations, insurance, supplies and a training course for staff was $4897.56. This ensured the Information Center was open from June until September to welcome the 9.9 visitors / hour or 4.9 parties / hour who used it's services. The center provides a wealth of verbal information to travellers in the area as well as maps and pamphlets of points of interest and recreational opportunities. Additionally, it gave two young people from the area summer employment. This year, the Chamber and McBride Snowmobile Association are working together to set up a web site on the Internet to advertise local snowmobiling and services. The Chamber of Commerce has purchased a Government Programs Guide which lists all government grants and is available at the village office for the public's use. An Automated Voice Message of weather reports for snowmobilers, skiing and other activities is another of the Chamber's contributions to the area. In order to fund these projects, the Chamber puts on fund raisers like the annual "Christmas Dinner" Dance, the Logger's Bonspiel and the Annual Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament. Coming up on October 10th is the Annual General Dinner meeting for all members and interested parties. New members are always welcome. Mary Jean Hooker 569-2639

Community Announcements

Attention: Parents, Teachers, and Childcare Workers - McBride and District Public Library, McBride Preschool, Family Society and McBride Centennial School are co-hosting a presentation entitled "Ready, Set, Read". This a program for adults who are interested in encouraging young children to read. Barb Dean, the presenter, will offer practical, easy-to-implement tips that are guaranteed to make the learning to read process both fun and productive. Come and hear what research has to say about, the most significant factors affecting reading success. "Ready, Set, Read" will be presented at McBride Centennial School on Saturday, October 19th, from 10:00 until 11:30 a.m.
