Local News

UHF- Shari Ulrich, Bill Henderson and Ray Forbes first got together in February 1989 for a one time only appearance at the Vancouver Winter Roots Festival. The artistic and musical success of that first concert lead to more shows and finally the recording of their first self titled CD, released in 1990. -Shari Ulrich- Originally from the San Francisco Bay Area, Shari immigrated to Vancouver in 1972 and began her career in music soon after the eccentric trio 'The Pied Pumpkin adding violin, flute mandolin, alto sax and vocals. In 1976 she joined Valdy's back up band which went on to be the Juno Award winning Homelown Band. Shari subsequent solo work has earned her five successful solo albums, (including her most recent "Every Road", another Juno award and a incomparable reputation for her distinct style as a great songwriter, musician, stage and TV performer. -Bill Henderson- Born in Vancouver and raised on the West Coast, Bill began his career in music while still in High school. After studying music at UBC, he joined the ground breaking and legendary Collectors in 1966. 'The Collectors' involved into the internationally renowned Chilliwack with Bill at the helm as lead singer, guitarist, producer and songwriter. With the Chilliwack name on the shelf, eighteen years, twelve albums and several awards later, Bill has recently been making solo appearances across the country drawing on twenty years of material along with a wealth of fine new songs. Bill has also earned substantial credits as a producer for such artists as John Baldry, 'The Nylons', 'The Rovers, Jr.Gome Wild and Valdy. Roy Forbes- Born in Dawson Creek, where the Alaska Highway begins, and nickname Bin as a child, Roy started playing guitar and writing songs when he was fourteen. He has seven solo albums to his credit including the latest, "Almost Overnight" a solo acoustic look at the Bin years. His songs have been recorded by such artists as Cindy Church, Sylvia Tyson, Matt Minglewood, Norm Foose, Garnet Rogers and Laurie Lewis. Production credits include Connie Kaldor, Mark Perry and The Great Western Orchestra as well as his own solo recordings. Roy recently completed his first film soundtrack for the director Nettie Wild's latest documentary, "Blockade". His profound lyrical sensibility, original guitar style and unmistakable voice have made Roy one of the finest Canadian songwriter / performers working today. So come and check out these three talented and wonderful performers on October 25, right here at the McBride at the Secondary School. Get your tickets at Stedmans today!!

Governarity Arrangements

The McBride and District Chamber of Commerce held it's Annual General Meeting and Dinner on Thursday, October 10, 1996 at the Elks Hall. There were 43 members and guests, present. -Ron Hawkins introduced the guest speaker, Hans Wagner of the Focus North Society. 'This is a new group of academics, professionals and business people who are trying to have Northern, B.C. Recognized as an important part of the Province. 'To do this, they need active participation from all the communities in the North. Rodger Peterson chaired the business part of the meeting. Matters of discussion were: a yearly award to the Business of the Valley; updating of the McBride Video and Brochure; and the Government Program Guide which is located at the Village Office is for the Publics Use. Mike Monroe officiated during the election of officers. All officers were put in by acclamation. President- Cally Whisic, Vice president- Dean Flahr, Directors- Robert Prentice, Paul Wildeman, Mary Hooker, Jim Karas, Rodger Peterson, Jean-Marc Lacasse, Susan Runtz and Carol Pleasants. As of yet no has been elected as Secretary or Treasurer. The Chamber of Commerce would like at this time to Thank the Village and there staff for there continued partnership with us in keeping our Tourist Information Open. Our monthly meetings are the second Thursday of each month and will be held at the CREDA Office. All old and new members are Welcome. The Annual Christmas Dinner is now being planned for Dec., 7th. Please watch for details. Submitted by Mary Hooker.
