Letters To The Editor

They were Hot!. The Hot drinks booth, sponsored by the Yellowhead Ski Club and McBride Bigway was a great success at Yamfest, Nov. 17th. There was a Steady stream of hot drink seekers! An estimated 400 snowmobilers attended the event. Thanks go out to Fern & Lloyd Sanson & Allison Marchant for keeping the hot drinks coming, Brent Chomyshen for set up & Forestry for loans of stoves, pots, tent and transporting supplies, etc. A Huge Thank You to McBride Bigway owners, Nelson and Bobbi-Ann Hicks, who donated all the supplies for the hot drinks - your support in all Yellowhead Ski Club endeavours is greatly appreciated. Thanks to the snowmobilers who filled our Donation jar with over $166.00 to be put towards ski club projects. Hot drinks booth organizer for W.H.S.C. K.Pawlyszyn.

Many thanks to the many donors of prizes who helped make the Drug Awareness Free Skate in McBride such a terrific success. Thanks to: Babba's Bistro & Deli, Sandman Inn McBride, North of Fifty, McBride Bigway, Stedmans V & S McBride, McBride Travellers Inn, McBride Clothing, Country King, Powerhouse Pub, Robson Valley Health Hut, McBride Home Hardware, Snoopy's Restaurant, McBride IGA, Rose Garden Boutique, Balcan Electronics, Odds 'N Ends, Jenny's, Fort Electric. Shopping Locally Helps The Community- I am writing this letter to Thank our valued community for shopping locally and supporting us throughout the year. I know that we always try to "Thank you" each time you make a purchase, and there are times we can't always satisfy you with what we offer. We don't always have the choice of variety or possibly the right price but we are here to try to provide you with a service so that you are not forced to drive out of town each time you need some essential. We wish to remind you that each purchase you make has helped provide employment for some local individual who in turn supports your community. They may support other businesses or clubs and charities which we all need to have for a viable, thriving community. To all the businesses from Prince George like Ricki's, Bootlegger, Cleo, and Young Canada we would more than gladly "welcome you" to join us by renting or building a store, pay local taxes, buy a business license, hire local people, pay utilities, and support our local clubs and charities. But when you choose to arrive in McBride for the day, we are reminding you that you are not supporting our community. Our customers are well aware that you are "out there" and they do have the choice of where to spend their money, so hopefully, Prince George has enough people to support you so that you don't have to come to our community and threaten the few jobs that we are able to provide here. Again, I wish to Thank every individual who supports us, because I'm sure you never realized how valuable you really are! Sincerely, Susan Kollida, Stedmans V&S, McBride, B.C.
