Better to the Editor

The 16th Annual Terry Fox Run is over and we have done ourselves proud again McBride. Thanks go out to all the Pledgers and Walkers. Our unofficial total this year is $4089.16. I would also like to thank the road crew; Dennis & Irene Rejman, Rob DeBoersap & Mike Moseley. Special thanks to IGA & Dean Flahr for ice, hot dogs & buns and to Bigway Foods for juice & hamburger buns. Thanks again to Mike Moseley for being my "assistant" and official photographer. Also thanks again to Dennis Rejman for the fine cooking of hot dogs and hamburgers. Hope your eyes have returned to normal. Thank You to all those people who bought Terry Fox T-Shirts and to Forever Printing for laminating the km. signs. It was great to see new walkers this year, we hope to see you all out again next year and feel free to bring a couple of friends too! - Eleanor Johnson

VOX VIOLINS- Beth is a classically trained violinist. Marks formative years were spent playing lead guitar in progressive rock bands. The two met at London's Home Country Folk Festival, in 1980 and since then have played across all of Canada and across all musical boundaries. -Vox Violins is very proud of the success that their CD, Playing With Pollywogs In The River Of Life has achieved since it's release in mid 1995. The songs feature strong writing, vocals and instrumentation by both artists. -Vox Violins' live presentation is unfailingly appreciated as a special experience. The obvious love for their music and their warmth they share with each other is easily imparted to the audience. This show is must see and you have a chance to check them out right here in McBride September 26th. Doors will open at 7:30p.m. and the show will start at 8:00p.m. Opening Acts are Mamadum & Shioh- This is going to be a great night for everyone. See you there! Adults $10, Students $8.

Terry Fox Run Interview- on Saturday morning if you were listening to C.B.C. Radio, you would have heard an interview with our very own Eleanor Johnson. As it turns out McBride raised the most money per capita for a small town in the C.B.C. listening area last year. We raised $4.75 for every man, woman and child in McBride. The biggest money raiser in McBride was Terry Kollida. We would like to say thank you and a job well done to Terry and to all the people who helped out by raising money. McBride, this is definitely something to be proud of. Way to go.

TERRY FOX CAR WASH- The McBride RCMP would like to thank all the participants in the car wash held on September 5th as well as all those who donated generously. Special thanks go to the SMITHS who generously allowed us to use their yard and hot water. $144.00 was collected.
