Coming Events

Roundhouse Theatre- THE MOLLYS- The Mollys play an eclectic mix of Irish, Mexican and American folk music using the traditional instruments: penny whistle, mandolin, guitar, harmonica, accordions and banjo. -In January of 1990 McCallion and Zavala started The Mollys. In the past seven years they have become very popular in Arizona, as well as other parts of the United States and Canada and both "This Is My Round" & "Hat Trick", their most recent release, are receiving air play nationally. -The Mollys also include Kevin Schramm who plays accordions, banjo and guitar. -On bass and guitar for the Mollys is Dan Sorenson. -On the drums, vocals and occasionally accordion is Gary Mackender. -The two traditions are connected by their shared affection for polkas and waltzes and by their common use of the accordion (played by Mollys member Kevin Schramm). They are further linked by McCallion's lyrics, which are full of sharp details, onerous attitudes and funny punch lines. -This band sounds like they know how to have a great time. Join them and the Roundhouse Theatre at the Dunster hall for a family dance Friday November 14th. at 8:00pm. -Tickets are available at Steadman-$15 adults, $8 students and 12 & under are free.

Coroner's Arrangements

A Reflection of Peace - The Royal Canadian Legion. The cold could not keep the fantastic crowd from going to the Parade, Service & Wreath Laying. Remembrance Day is to honour the memory of the men who fought for our Country and for the Freedom we have today. The Parade was led by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police & the Legion members (both groups looking very classy in their dress uniforms), Girl Guides, Brownies & Boy Scouts. Everyone participated in the singing of O'Canada, The Last Post, the Two Minutes of Silence, the Legion Prayer & the singing of "God Save The Queen." It was a touching moment for people of all ages.
 Minor Hockey would like to Thank McBride Chevron and the Sandman Inn for sponsoring the Brian Toll Hockey School. Your Support is much Appreciated.

Hockey news

-On November 1 and 2 the McBride Atom Grizzlies hosted the Quesnel West Fraser tier one Atoms. McBride worked hard to come away with one tie and two losses. The first game ended in a 6-6 tie, with Cody Yetter scoring four goals, and Trevor Hicks and Paul Kollida each with one. Trevor, Paul and Raymond Unruh all earned assists. In the other two games, Trevor Hicks scored all three goals with assists assigned to Cesco Vizza, Cody Yetter and Jeff McNaughton. Clinton Plasmann, Paul Kollida and Raymond Unruh split the goal-tending duties and all performed well against a "barage of shots on net."
 -On Saturday, November 8th, the McBride Atom Grizzlies played host to Household Finance, a tier one Atom team from Prince George. In the first game, backstopped by Paul Kollida, the Atoms lost a close game 7-5, with the final Prince George goal scored into a empty net. McBride goals were scored by Cody Yetter (4) and Curtis Vizza (1). Trevor Hicks and Martin Nagy earned assists. The second game was more lop-sided, however, with a final score of 16-4 for Prince George. Cody Yetter earned 2 goals, while Raymond Unruh and Trevor Hicks each scored once. Clinton Plasmann was in net for the Grizzlies.
 -The Atoms see action again November 15 at 11:00 and November 16 at 10:00 and 2:00 in Valmounnt.
