Police Report

MISCHIEF. On December 9th police were called by a Museum Road resident who advised that a large window in his log cabin had been broken. There are no suspects in this incident.
BREAK AND ENTER. In the late evening of December 12th police were called to a 5th Ave. residence for a forced entry to a workshop. Nothing appears to have been stolen, and there are no suspects at this time. If you have any information about this incident please contact the local R.C.M.P.
BREAK, ENTER, AND THEFT. On December 13th police attended Zeidlers Forest Products who had two lockers pried open and tools stolen. This file is still under investigation, and police are seeking information from the public to help solve this crime.

INJURY MOTOR VEHICLE INCIDENT. In the early morning hours of December 14th, police and ambulance were called to attend to the six occupants of a car that left Sansom Rd. and rolled. There were various injuries, however, none were life threatening. The young driver was issued a 24 hour driving prohibition.

THEFT OF CHRISTMAS LIGHTS. There have been a number of incidents of stolen Christmas lights this season resulting in some upset property owners. Police are requesting information from the public to identify those responsible and recover this property.

LOADED FIREARM. A routine check of a vehicle on Main St. in McBride on the evening of December 18th by a Valdemount Highway Patrol officer revealed a loaded 22 calibre rifle in the possession of the passenger. A charge under the Firearm Act has been issued.

NOISY PARTIES. A recent court decision in Ontario has given police another tool to use in dealing with noisy parties. A home owner may be charged criminally with Mischief if his noise interferes with the "enjoyment" of his neighbours property. It is anticipated that this course of action would only be undertaken after other avenues of dealing with the problem have been exhausted.
