COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Born Jan. 10th - Clara Dawn Lindawn Hickerty 5lb. 7oz. 19" 10:59p.m. & Parker Clarke Donald Hickery 6lb. 8oz. 19 3/4" 11:13p.m. Proud Parents Clarke and Karen. Proud brothers Derek, Turel and Jaron. Many Thanks to Dr. Kalos, Dr. Patel & Dr. Cowburn, and LDR & SCN nurses.
Clara & Parker Jan. 11/97

Two little bundles.....So precious and new.....One will wear pink.....The other one blue.....Clara came first.....To delight all around.....Then out came Parker.....True faith did abound.....What did it matter.....That it was minus 30.....Mum & Dad were right there.....Auntie Dawn completed the party.....Grandma and big brothers.....Were waiting to hear.....To run up and cuddle.....The two new wee dears.....We finally saw you.....And to God we did pray.....To thank him for the gift.....More beautiful than words can say.....Lots of love Grandma and Papa.

Caterer Wanted - The Old Timers Hockey Club is looking for people to Caterer the Hockey Tournament on February 14th. Bids can be submitted to Albert Bedard Box 625, McBride, B.C. ASAP. Thank You.

NOTICE TO ALL SNOWMOBILERS- A gentleman from Seeschell phoned us and told us he had some gas stolen from jerry cans when they were up the mountain and he was a little discouraged. He said that they really enjoyed themselves when they were here and looked forward to coming back but wanted to tell people to please lock everything up (fuel, tie downs etc.) as there have been thefts on the mountain, so please be careful. It does happen!!!

A note to the community that you are not being blamed, but anyone doing this is making our community look bad and we hope you realize that snowmobilers generate a lot of business in this town and that we can't afford to loose that. So if you know of anyone doing this or if you have any information about any strange things happening on the mountains, please contact the local RCMP. Thank You, Oscar.

The Royal Purple Ladies and the Seventh Day Adventist Church would like to Thank the people who donated food and money for hampers which were given at Christmas. As well as donations at Halloween from every door, we thank the Forestry, B.C. Tel, Liquor Store, The Legion for candies and the High School and counter Attack. We delivered 32 canned food hampers and 6 Christmas dinners. Also included were home baking, oranges and salad fixings. Also a big thanks to the folks who made the deliveries.

MCBRIDE SECONDARY SCHOOL

The McBride Secondary is hosting Charlotte's School of Dance performing "Cinderella" on Friday, January 30th at 7:30p.m. Tickets are available at the school. Police Report

24 HOUR DRIVING PROHIBITION- At 1:33a.m. January 17, at Hwy. 16 and Main St. police checked a local young person driving a car. The driver had been drinking alcohol, and was issued a 24 hour driving prohibition.
LIQUOR SEIZURES- Two liquor seizures were made in McBride during the early morning hours of January 17.
NO DRIVERS LICENCE- As a result of a complaint from a citizen, a local resident was issued a traffic ticket on January 19 for operating a vehicle without a valid drivers licence.
PHONE FRAUD- Police were advised on January 21 of an elderly resident who had recently been victimized by a telephone fraud originating out of Quebec. A large amount of money was sent to claim a prize. The prize was worth only a small amount. As a result of this incident, and several others, the McBride RCMP and Home Support are organizing an Information Meeting on the subject. The tentative date is February 11th at 3:00p.m. at Beaverview Lodge. Contact Christina MacMaster at Home Support for more information.
BREACH PROBATION- On January 22 at 9:02a.m. police were advised of an intoxicated male walking along Highway 16 just west of McBride. The male was located and detained for breaching the no alcohol portion of his probation. The matter will be followed up by his Probation Officer.
