COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Northern Rural Doctors and Health Board Reach Final Agreement. The Northern Interior Regional Health Board and Northern Rural Doctors have reached a final agreement regarding physician services in rural areas of the region. Last Wednesday, the Board had said it was confident that a final agreement was near. That same day, the rural physicians withdrew a September 13 to resume job action is no contract was in place. Regional Health Board CEO Dave Richardson and Regional Medical Director Dr. Jennifer Rice have been in contact with the physicians regularly over the last week in efforts to finalize wording on a contract based on the Dobbin Report, released earlier this year. With the wording agreed upon, final contracts will be developed and sent out to physicians today. Richardson says he is elated that a final agreement has been developed that meets the needs of the physicians, the Board and most importantly, the residents living in those communities.

Hey McBride, good concert on Sept. 13th at the Roundhouse Theatre. For those who went it was a great night. Garnet Rogers was funny and a great entertainer. Next is Rawlins Cross on Thursday, Oct. 15th. Now everyone get ready for this concert, I've heard nothing but good comments about this band. You won't want to miss it, so I'll see you there!!!!

Baby Tips

On the Go - Time to go grocery shopping, and baby has learned to stand up in front of the cart. One way to keep him seated is to tie his or hers shoelaces together. This prevents him or her from pulling up his legs.
When one or both parents are going to be absent from the baby for an extended period of time (business trip, vacation or hospitalization) make a cassette tape of the person / persons reading or talking to the baby. The sound of their voice will be reassuring.
