COMING EVENTS

McBride Figure Skating Bottle Drive is on Sunday, April 11 starting at 10am.

Valley Pioneers' Quilt Guild Present a QUILT SHOW - Sat. May 1st, 1999 at the Roundhouse Theatre - McBride Highschool. The McBride Roundhouse Theatre Society - April 1st M.S.S. Drama students present - April Foolishness - "After Livepool" & "Virtue Victorious" Come by and watch what local talent we have right here in our home town.

Joel Fafard - Friday, April 16th. "With a voice as full of hope as every spring's planting, Joel Fafard writes music that speaks of optimistic love tempered with a reality that can only come from growing up on the prairies... He's a dandy guitar player to." CBC Radio. Fafard has won the respect of his peers and other luminaries, including David Esig and Roy Forbes. Fafard has been compared to Leo Kottke and James Taylor for his ability to play guitar and write songs that matter, but after one listen you'll hear he has found his own twist on things. Don't miss this spectacular show!!! Tickets are $12.00 & 7.00.

MACBETH - WOW what a great show. I had a bit of a hard time understanding it, I haven't really seen much of Shakespeare - but after this play I could go see it again. What a terrific job for such hard lines and most had two to three different parts they played. It was great acting, great play. I hope everyone enjoyed it as much as Oscar & I. If you haven't seen this play and get a chance to, don't pass it up.

Soccer Coaching Clinic: Saturday, April 10 from 9-3, at McBride Elementary School Gym for anyone interested in coaching soccer. Will cover basic soccer skills, warm-up exercises, fun ways to present drills / exercises, rules of mini-soccer. Ideal for those who would like to be involved in youth soccer. Presented by Leo O'Connell of Prince George Youth Soccer. Costs $10.00 / person. Call Jane MacDonald at 569-3766 to register.

Soccer Coaches Needed! Anyone interested in coaching mini-soccer for kids aged 5-10 for May and June, please call Jane MacDonald at 569-3766 for more information.

$100,000 REWARD

FOR INFORMATION ON HOME INVASIONS
 The Government of British Columbia and Vancouver Police Board have authorized a reward of up to $100,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for a series of home invasions in the city of Vancouver between 1995 and 1999.

- Offences were committed by masked persons who broke into elderly victims' homes;
- Victims were bound, assaulted or otherwise subdued; injuries ranged from severe trauma to broken bones;
- Homes were ransacked for money.

An approved official committee will decide disbursement of all or part of this reward. Only persons who volunteer information to the police will be eligible for the reward. Anyone with information regarding these offences should call the Vancouver Police Department, other police agencies or Crimestoppers at 669-TIPS. Offer expires December 31, 1999.
