Do you have a family member or friend suffering from a brain disorder such as major depression, bipolar, schizophrenia or mood disorder? Sometimes you don't know where to turn. There are people who will say "just give them a good kick in the rear." Would they say that to someone suffering from Cancer, M.S., or Diabetes? Why are we so slow in recognizing that mental disorders are also diseases caused by a chemical imbalance in the brain? If you have experienced some of the above, there are others dealing with similar situations, so we have formed a support group to let you know "you are not alone out there." We will meet the last Thursday, Sept. 30th at the Nurses Residence in McBride, 7:30p.m. All are welcome. This support group is sponsored by the B.C. Schizophrenia Society and is free of charge. Please contact Norma at 569-2637 or Elizabeth at 968-4347
