Oscar's Comment

Robson Valley Land Hazard Study. To everyone out there who thinks that this issue does not effect you because you are in the white zone or live in town, think again. This study affects the whole Robson Valley one way or another including the people of McBride. For example; Lets say someone wants to build a house on property out of town but they can't get a building permit because the property is supposedly in the red zone. The land owner wont then be able to build so they wont be buying material from local stores. In turn the stores can't support more staff so they don't hire your son, daughter or any other staff. Everyone Loses. This is only one example of how we in town are affected.

MCBRIDE ROUNDHOUSE THEATRE SOCIETY

Hey McBride The Roundhouse Theatre is back and do they have great shows lined up for the fall season. The first entertainers to start this season is a Celtic Band called Scruif; they consist of six old souls between the ages of 18 and 26. Ruth Moody brings her superb voice to the band as well as excellence on the Piano and Bodhran. Guitarist Jeremy Walsh is a songwriter of infinite skill in the tradition of Paxton and Guthrie. Fiddler, Jeremy Penner adds harmony vocals to his ace fiddling. Banjoist Leonard Padolak delivers driving rhythms and honest singing to the mix. Oliver Swain on Bass Fiddle and vocals brings a bottom end and a bottom line to the group and Christian Dugas on percussion and vocals adds flawless timing and youthful exuberance to the band. They are all excellent musicians, and the band is particularly strong vocally. What sets them apart from most Celtic bands is the use of the claw hammer banjo, and Podlak's playing on "Walking Boss" and "Pretty Little Indian" is quite remarkable. Butler's trademark Newfoundland accordion work on his own "Aquamarine Two Step" and Moody's crystal clear vocals on "Rocks of Bawn" and "Roddy MacClorley" are other highlights. This is one of Winnipeg's most popular live draws and you won't want to miss it. If you like Celtic music you, you'll love this performance!!!! Tuesday, September 14 at 8:00pm. The Fall Season Calendar is coming soon, so watch for it!!!! MSS DRAMA DEPARTMENT project for this fall needs HELP. If you can make music and would like to help out with the Musical "Dracula Baby" please contact K.S. O'Brien 569-2227 (Costume Co-ordinator/Crew is also needed).
