MCBRIDE ROUNDHOUSE THEATRE SOCIETY

TODAY Silk Road Wednesday, Oct. 11th 8:00p.m. $12.00 & $6.00 In the same way that the Silk Road trade route was once a vehicle to exchange cultural ideas between East and West, SILK ROAD MUSIC combines the traditional styles of the East, with new influences picked up in the West. They play Chinese music with western performance techniques, they play Jazz, Folk and Irish music on Chinese instruments, and they play with music and from other cultural backgrounds creating a new sound entirely.

For their Roundhouse performance they will be playing with flamenco guitarist Andre Thibault. His stunning techniques result from a blend of Andalusian and Moorish Traditions coloured with Jazz, classical and world music.

A huge hit at the Edmonton Folk Festival, Qiu Xia He, Shirley Yuan and Zhu Min Yu along with special guest Andre Thibault will deliver a unique evening of World Music.

 On the 1st of October, police responded to a report of a train spending the night in the CN yard and the noise was causing some concern to a few of the local residents. A letter will be sent to the CN addressing this issue of Noise.
 October 1, an abandoned auto was reported on Hwy. 16 and Loos Road in Crescent Spur. The vehicle was towed after a length of time had passed and the owner from Vanderhoof was notified.

On October 1 RCMP received a report of some traffic cones ending up on local residents lawn. It was unknown who left them there. The cones were returned to the Ministry of Highways office. No charges are being laid.
 October 1, McBride RCMP responded to an Alarm set off at a local Business and upon attendance by an RCMP member the alarm was confirmed false.
 There were two traffic complaints on October 1.

A complaint came in about a Freightliner, driving erratically, passing on double solid lines and running cars off the road. Patrols were made and unfortunately failed to locate the vehicle.
 The second occurrence was of a similar nature. The U-Haul truck, headed East, was swerving over the center line, almost causing a collision. Patrol was made and turned out negative. Valenmont Detachment was advised and their patrol located the vehicle and found out that the driver was over tired.
 October 2, 2000 an alarm was set off at the Ministry of Forests office. The alarm company was unable to reach a property rep. and the RCMP responded. Upon attendance the alarm was confirmed as false.
 The McBride RCMP would like to let everyone know that the time period for having studded tires on their vehicles for the winter season is October 1 to April 30.
