The Bruce Denniston Society was formed in 1988, when Constable Bruce Denniston of the RCMP was stricken with leukemia and needed a bone marrow transplant to survive. At that time no national registry of potential bone marrow donors existed. The society was formed to raise money and lobby government for the creation of such a registry. The goal was quickly realized, and now the Canadian Unrelated Bone Marrow Donor Registry, under the management of Canadian Blood Services, holds the names of well over 200,000 potential donors.

The Bruce Denniston Bone Marrow Society can be reached by calling toll-free 1-877-485-8488, by Fax at (604)485-0052, by e-mail at bdmarrow@prcn.org, or by mail at P.O. Box 157, Powell River, BC, V8A 4Z6.
