Police report

On April 21, 2001 at approximately 1:20 a.m. the RCMP attended the Powerhouse Pub in regards to a few fights. The investigation revealed that the fights originated inside the pub among a few patrons and was carried out outside. Alcohol was definitely a factor.

patrons and was carried out outside. Alcohol was definitely a factor. No charges were laid.

On April 22, 2001, the RCMP were called to a structure fire on Loos Rd. in Crescent Spur. The investigation revealed that the owner was burning hay when it got out of hand and spread to a barn. The resident was able to control the fire himself.

On April 24, 2001, the RCMP responded to an alarm at a local business. A patrol was made and the alarm checked out to be false.

On April 25, 2001, the RCMP along with BC Ambulance and the McBride Fire & Rescue responded to a serious single motor vehicle accident approximately 73 kms west of McBride over. The sole occupant was ejected from the vehicle as he was not wearing a seat belt and ended up over 60 feet from where his truck came to rest. The Dome Creek resident suffered of a broken back along with several other injuries. He was transported to Prince George Regional Hospital but later he was lifted to Vancouver General Hospital.
