COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Turtle Island Earth Stewards - Turtle Island Earth Stewards (TIES) is a non-profit organization established in 1975, promoting land stewardship. Carla and Julie are excited to be undertaking a landowner outreach program (LOP) in the Robson Valley to identify landowners who want assistance in the stewardship, enhancement, restoration or long-term protection of ecologically sensitive areas of their properties. This is a free service involving staff members walking private properties with landowners in order to provide a written report for the landowner outlining the ecological and historical value of their land. Listing of vegetation and wildlife species are involved as well. In addition, a nature map of the property can be produced for a small charge. Interested landowners can contact Carla and Julie at the CREDA office, 569-3379.

We would like to thank the community of McBride for the wonderful welcome we received last weekend at the Open House for the Upper Fraser Historical Geography Project. SCOUTS CANADIAN JAMBOREE

The CJ contingent of Scouts, Jason Mattson, Reece Forster and Scouter Rose Anne Forster are pleased to announce we are going to the Canadian Jamboree July 6-14. Thank you McBride and surrounding area for your generous support in helping to make this possible for us. Thank you to all Jason's and Reece's family and friends who made special donations. Thank you to the many tourists who supported our barbecues. But a special thank you to each and every community member who supported the various fundraisers: Reece's wild flower sales, Reece's & Jason's bike-a-thons, the barbecues, the bottle drives, the cookie dough sales and the car wash. Special thanks to: Joe Rich for the Esso parking lot for our car wash, Dean Flahr for the IGA parking lot for our barbecues, Gene & Susan Runtz of McBride Forest Industries for the truck wash contract and the X-mas party centrepiece fundraiser, Sue & Dwayne Walker for the bay for the MFI truck wash, Al Miller for placement of the donation box at Cruise Auto, Leona & Louis Lindstrom for the many odd jobs they gave us, Brett Verhoeven for labour supplied for those odd jobs, the Elk's for their $100.00 donation to Jason, Brian Taphorn and Melvin Taphorn from Scouter Rose Anne who on separate occasions and probably without knowing how important it was, encouraged me personally in our fundraising efforts with their "can do" attitude and words of encouragement.
