REMEMBRANGE DAY

Why do we wear a poppy each November?

Never to die, never to surrender.

As we stand here on this cold winter afternoon Remembering those people who died so soon.

Why are these Veterans standing here in silence?

Trying not to remember those years of violence.

So, when you wear your poppy by your heart, Remembering those people who fought with a start. So silently through the bush they crept, While their wives stayed at home and wept.

The poppy is on everyone's heart, each Movember, That is what helps us remember.

By Logan Jacques, Gr. 7 - McBride Centennial Sc. DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know why they fought and died?
Do you know why their mothers cried?
Do you know the suffering and the pain?
Do you know feeling of real gain?
Do you know what makes us so sad?
Do you know what makes us so glad?
Do you know the family's hurt?
Do you know the family's hurt?

They fought for our freedom,
That's why we're here.
Young and old it was war they feared.

THE THOUGHT
that we all had suffer

The pain of the death that we all had suffer
That stays in our hearts through easy or a lot rougher
The war took place almost 60 years ago
They fought and fought against the foe
Most soldiers lie were the poppies grow
There are many wounds you could never sew
Young ones fought for their land
They supported their country for supply and demand.
Some lost their loved ones back in the fight
But it is time to move on now you can see the light
On Remembrance day wear a poppy red
And November 11th is straight ahead!
