MCVALE MIDGET HOCKEY NEWS

Our McVale Midget Hockey team travelled to Prince George on November to participate in the 27th Annual Kinsmen Tournament hosted by the Prince George Coast Inn Midget team.

McVale was one of eight teams on the B side. McVale's first game was against the host team Prince George. McVale opened the scoring at 18:07 but Prince George came back right away to tie the score. Prince George left the first period leading 3 to 2. At the end of the second period Prince George led 4 to 2. McVale scored to make it 4 to 3 but Prince George scored two more to win the games 6 to 3. Scoring for McVale were Bryce Balon with 2 goals and Brandon McLennan with a single. Assist went to Brian Johnson,
B.J. Hasper, Shawn Molendyk and Justin Mainprize and Stephen Harstad. M.V.P. for this game was Bryce Balon.

McVale's second game was against Kitimat. Kitimat came out strong and after one period led by the score of 5 to 1. The second period saw McVale score two goals which ended at 6 to 3 for Kitimat.
McVale tried hard but Kitimat out scored them 4 to 1 in the third and the game finished with the score 10 to 4 for Kitimat. Scoring for McVale were Justin Mainprize with 2 goals, Shawn Molendyk with 1 goal and Amy Hammerstedt with her first of the season.
Assists went to Shawn Molendyk with 2, singles went to Justin Mainprize, Bryce Balon, B.J. Hasper, Mandy Vizza and Brian Johnson. M.V.P. for McVale was Dean Osadchuk.

A skills competition was held Friday afternoon. Winning awards were Shawn Molendyk for Rapid fire and Chris Poolt won the shoot out.

McVale's third game was against Burns Lake. These two teams were evenly matched and after the first period McVale led 3 to 2.
As the game wore on, McVale got stronger and led 6 to 3 after two periods. The final score was 7 to 3 for McVale. Scoring for McVale with a hat trick were Adrian Edwards and Shawn Molendyk. Chris Poolt added a single. Assist went to Justin Mainprize with 3, Bryce Balon and Brian Johnson got 1 each. M.V.P. for the game went to Adrian Edwards.

By winning this game McVale entered the play-offs going for 5th place. The opposing team was Terrace. After one period Terrace led 1 to 0. McVale came back in the second and by the end of the second the score was tied 2 to 2. In the third, McVale took the lead early but Terrace answered back with 2 quick goals and game end.
Terrace won by the score of 5 to 3. Game M.V.P. was Bryce Balon.
Scoring for McVale was Shawn Molendyk with 2 goals, Bryce Balon added a single. Assists went to Shawn Molendyk, Bryce Balon, Justin Mainprize, Jon Carr and Brandon McLennan.

POLICE REPORT

November 24, 2001 - Overnight a car was pushed into the middle of 2 avenue. The car had four punctured tires, key marks on all sides and on top of the car. The ignition was vandalized as well as the stereo was stolen. If anyone has information that could help in an investigation, please call the McBride RCMP at 569-2255.

November 24, 2001 - A front window at a local restaurant and an auto body shop was broken overnight. It is unknown the cause of the damage but may be related to the car damage.

November 25, 2001 - A report was made of a non injury accident with a moose 21 km east of McBride. The driver was travelling under the speed limit due to icy roads when a moose came out of the right ditch and hit the vehicle head on. The truck sustained major structural damage and the moose was killed.

November 28, 2001 - A report was made of a two vehicle accident with a moose east of McBride near the Holmes River. The first vehicle was west bound and when the moose came out of the ditch the vehicle hit and sent it into the east bound lane. The second vehicle east bound didn't see the moose and hit it sending the vehicle into the ditch. No one in the first vehicle were injured although 2 occupants in the second vehicle sustained minor injuries. The remainder of the calls were routine in nature and of a general service.

AROUND THE SCHOOLS

Don't miss the basketball action at McBride Secondary School this weekend starting at 3:00pm on Friday and running through Saturday. Junior Girl's teams from McBride and Valemount will be competing with other teams from Alberta and British Columbia. A schedule of games will be posted at the school - come out and support your home team - the McBride Mustangs.

The McBride Secondary School Grad class is currently selling tickets for the annual Christmas Hamper. This is the second of three fund raising events in support of the 2002 Graduation Dinner. The draw for the hamper will be held on Thursday, December 20th. TAG classes at McBride Secondary will be collecting food items for Christmas Hampers to be presented to the Elks/Royal Purple for distribution throughout the community. Students will decorate hamper boxes, and try to fill a complete hamper per class. The challenge begins on Monday, December 10th and hampers will be presented to the Elks Royal Purple on Wednesday, December 19th.

McBride Secondary School will be holding their Christmas Dance on Friday, December 14th from 7:00pm to 11:00pm. Students are encouraged to bring a non perishable food item to the dance. Parent sponsors are needed for the dance. If you can help out for an hour.

Student Travel Schools has the privilege of bringing students from around the world to Canada for a high school year. Students such as Michelle from Australia, Haylee from New Zealand and Andy from South Africa are looking forward to spending a year with a Canadian family. They want to come to Canada to see all the open spaces, to play hockey or ski, to experience many different cultures living together in the same country.

We desperately need homes for Students arriving in JANUARY. If you want more information on our program call Sheila at:
