as Head Nurse of both McBride Hospital and Valemount Health Centre; she commences her new duties on Monday, September 23.

*Marie has been Charge Nurse at the Valemount Health Centre for the past 10 years and has a baccalaureate degree in Nursing. She began her nursing career by working in a small rural hospital for one (1) year. She then successfully completed Dalhousie University's one-year Outpost Nursing Program and worked for seven (7) years in the Canadian Outpost. *Upon returning South, Marie worked a further four (4) years in a small rural hospital, four (4) years in an inner city clinic in Edmonton and three (3) years as a Public Health Nurse. In addition to her Charge Nurse responsibilities at Valemount Marie is also the Diabetes Educator for the Valley and has been holding clinics in both McBride and Valemount. *Marie's role as Head Nurse will support my role as Health Services Administrator in a big way and I welcome her to this challenging position. I invite the public in both communities to drop by to congratulate Marie and give her their support. Thank You.

Health Services Administrator -Charles Taylor, Robson Valley.
