How to Talk so Kids Will Listen

STARTING March 11th 7-9pm. Every Tuesday for 6 weeks. A special workshop designed to help give you the tools for the challenging job of raising a human being and help use those tools to turn your care into a better day to day relationship with your children). As a parent, grandparents, aunt, uncle, foster parents, school teacher or someone who deals with children, this workshop is not only fun but thought provoking. It can become a support group to bounce ideas off of and to help you realize that you are not alone in the way you handle day to day situations with children. This course was designed by Elaine Mazlish & Adele Faber who have written several books on parenting and child rearing in an easy to understand way and with great results. This workshop will be held on Tuesdays from 7-9 pm for 6 sessions. I know we all have busy lives and six sessions sounds like a huge investment of time - but so are the children in our lives. If you would like to take the workshop please contact Nancy Taylor at Robson Valley Home Support 569-2266. The only cost for the course is for the workbook and will be about $30. Nancy will be the workshop leader and has years of experience as an Educator, Counselor & has taught pre-natal class and parenting classes.
