Elks/Royal Purple News

This past weekend the Elks celebrated their 70th and the Royal Purple their 55th Anniversary. There were many dignitaries that travelled to McBride to join in with the festivities. The Supreme Honoured Royal Lady Jo Sweeting was here from Saskatoon, the District Deputies for the Elks and Royal Purple in Prince George Paul Nolan and Linda Nolan, as well as members from Williams Lake, Vanderhoof and Maaßenzie. The weekend started off with the hall decorated to look like a casino. Members were able to try their luck playing black jack, roulette, crown and anchors etc. It was a great evening for older members to reminisce and newer members to find out how it use to be. On Saturday, 20 members participated in a golf tournament at Deer Meadows. The results were: Team with the Lowest Score - Shawn Molendyk, Bev Dukart, Carlos Green and Ole Quam. Men's Long Drive - Shawn Molendyk. Women's Long Drive - Noella Herod. Men's Long Putt - Dwayne Needham. Ladies Long Putt - Kathy Molendyk. Men's KP - Bill Urphart. Most Consistent Putter - Bev Dukart. Most Balls Lost in Bush - Matt Slaney. Most Unique Eagle Shot - Gene Runtz. Barb Jackson (Beany 2) put on a beautiful luncheon for the women at the Elks Hall followed by a fashion show. Thanks Barb and crew! In the afternoon the Installation of Officers was held followed by a potluck dinner and dance (music by the Elastic Band). On Sunday, there was a pancake breakfast and everyone said their good-byes. A great time was had for all. A weekend that won't be forgotten!

Again we have been busy renovating the hall. Beginning this week the floor will be refinished so you will be able to really dance around the dance floor at our next Family Dance that will be held in July, watch for more details. Also thank you to Joe Kolida who donated his time and machinery to clean up the lot next to the Elks hall. It looks much better!!! We would also like to thank Jim Bartlett for his donation of time and machinery on the new road signs at the pull-outs on both sides of town. Make sure you check them out! The Robson Valley Forest District Social Committee also made a donation towards the Elks and Royal Purple. Thank you to everyone on that committee!!! Check out our ad on contacts for the Elks and Royal Purple Pioneer Days on June 20-22nd. We would like to make this year better than last.

Robson Valley Youth Softball Tournament

On Sunday, May 25th the Robson Valley Youth Softball 11-14 year olds teams had a fund tournament against the two Valemount teams. Fortunately the weather held out for the day and each team were able to play two games each. There were no winners or losers in this tournament it was just to have fun and play a little softball. Of course there are many people who help put on these events and if it weren't for them it wouldn't happen. We would like to thank following: Sarah Harstad and Rita Aspeslet (who put on the hotdog luncheon for players and coaches) The umpires: Marty Kelly, Hans Remmelg, Mark Thiffault, Quino Vizza, Bob Bekus, Nelson DeFrias, Teresa Caputo and Marty Hickerty. Also a thank you to the coaches and parents who did their part. Make sure you come out and cheer all the teams during their year-end tournament on Saturday, June 14th and buy a burger or hotdog and help support the Grad Class of 2004 who will be hosting a barbecue.
