The Two Rivers Gallery, Prince George and Region, is sending their popular exhibition Forest on tour. This travelling version of the show is part of the Two Rivers Gallery regional outreach program.
The exhibition will not only make these fine artworks accessible to residents of smaller communities, but will showcase the great talent of our regional artists. The artists participating in the Forest exhibition to the call for submissions with a variety of interpretations, media and styles. For some, the forest represents a site of conflict, for others, the woodland is a meditative milieu, through their artwork, the forest becomes an invigorating space for recreation or even an inspiration to the spiritual. As one visitor pointed out, "there is so much more to a "Forest" than trees."
