THE “COMMUNITY COOKBOOK” PROJECT

What better way to showcase a classic family recipe than to have it printed in the Community Cookbook? From now until September 15, 2004, I will be collecting recipes for inclusion in the book. I'm also looking (hoping) for contributions to help offset the printing costs of this project, as all proceeds will be going to THE B.C. CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL. Supporters who contribute $20.00 will have their name or the name of their business (great advertising!) printed at the front of the book and receive a free cookbook once they are printed. Recipe submission sheets are available for pick-up and drop-off at the McBride Scottiabank. If you can't pick up a sheet it's o.k., just make sure the recipe is neatly written or typed and the ingredients/directions are included as well as your name (address too - McBride, Dunster, Dome Creek etc.) and the name of the recipe, then you can even fax it to me. I also want to include some interesting facts about the Valley (everybody “loves” to read a cookbook) - Valley historians you know who you are! Thank you in advance for your support, as this is such a worthwhile cause and a great way to promote our community and the master chefs within.
