THANK YOU to everyone who came out to enjoy the Tales of the Robson Valley on Monday, August 2. This was the start of a new tradition for BC Day. Special thanks goes to those who were eager to share their early experiences in the valley: Ron Hawkins, Wayne Zimmerman, Fern Sansom, Dorothy Stewart, Sarah Simanton, Elsie Stanley, Barb Jackson, Talitha Kosin and David Stewart. Their fascinating tales left listeners wanting more, so we look forward to having additional presentations at the Roundhouse Theatre during the fall and winter. Thank you also to Linda Fry for planting the seed of the idea and to Peter Alan for his musical interludes and loan of the sound system. - Sue Demaine, for the McBride Info Centre and

STORY OF THE WEEK

Now that Vancouver has won the chance to host the 2010 Winter Olympics these are some questions people the world over have been asking! These questions about Canada were posted on an International Tourism website.

- Q: I have never seen it warm on Canadian TV, so how do the plants grow? (UK)
- A: We import all plants fully grown and then just sit around and watch them die.
- Q: Will I be able to see Polar Bears in the street? (USA)
- A: Depends how much you've been drinking.
- Q: I want to walk from Vancouver to Toronto - can I follow the Railroad tracks? (Sweden)
- A: Sure, it's only Four thousand miles, take lots of water. . . .
- Q: Is it safe to run around in the bushes in Canada? (Sweden)
- A: So it is true what they say about Swedes.
- Q: Can you give me some information about hippo racing in Canada? (USA)
- A: A-rit-ca is the big triangle shaped continent south of Europe. Ca-na-da is that big country to your North . . . oh forget it. Sure, the hippo racing is every Tuesday night in Calgary. Come naked.
- Q: Can you send me the Vienna Boys' Choir schedule? (USA)
- A: Aus-tri-a is that quaint little country bordering Ger-man-y, which is . . . oh forget it. Sure, the Vienna Boys Choir plays every Tuesday night in Vancouver and in Calgary, straight after the hippo races. Come naked.
- Q: Do you have perfume in Canada? (Germany)
- A: No, WE don't stink.
- Q: I have developed a new product that is the fountain of youth. Can you tell me where I can sell it in Canada? (USA)
- A: Anywhere significant numbers of Americans gather.
- Q: Are there supermarkets in Toronto and is milk available all year round? (Germany)
- A: No, we are a peaceful civilization of Vegan hunter/gatherers. Milk is illegal.
- Q: I have a question about a famous animal in Canada, but I forget it's name. It's a kind of big horse with horns. (USA)
- A: It's called a Moose. They are tall and very violent, eating the brains of anyone walking close to them. You can scare them off by spraying yourself with human urine before you go out walking.
- Q: Will I be able to speak English most places I go? (USA)
- A: Yes, but you will have to learn it first.
