MEMORIAL SERVICE

James Ervin Ewen, born on April 30, 1944 in McBride, B.C., spending his early years in Eddy and McBride, passed away suddenly on July 10, 2004 in Langley, B.C.

A memorial service to celebrate Jim's life will be held on September 4, 2004 at 2:30 pm in the Anglican United Church with a luncheon to follow in the hall.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Jim's honor to the McBride Extended Care, where Jim's mother, Mabel Ewen, resides.

THANK YOU

The McBride Renegades Slo-Pitch Team would like to thank the following who made our Fall Fair Ball Tournament a success. TRC Cedar, The Logger and The Lady, Robson Valley Home Hardware, Stedmans, and Forever Printing and Signs for all of your sponsorship and prizes. Thank you to Shame and Sarah Bressette and Ole and Jennifer Quan for your continued trophy sponsorship. A special thanks to all the umpires, scorekeepers, and participants, see you all next year.

POLICE REPORT

During the afternoon of August 23, RCMP from the McBride and Valenount Detachments responded to a firearm complaint in the rural area of McBride. After an altercation took place between two neighbouring dogs, one of the owner's fired two shots from a rifle towards the residence where the altercation took place. As a result of this investigation, which also involved execution of a search warrant, police seized a hunting rifle, a handgun and ammunition. The 39 year old male suspect was later released on conditions with charges pending for various firearm offences and uttering threats.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN...?

All the girls had ugly gym uniforms? It took five minutes for the TV to warm up? Nearly everyone's Mom was at home when the kids got home from school? Nobody owned a purebred dog? When a quarter was a decent allowance? You'd reach into a muddy gutter for a penny? Your Mom wore nylons that came in two pieces? All your male teachers wore neckties and female teachers had their hair done every day and wore high heels? You got your windshield cleaned, oil checked, and gas pumped, without asking, all for free, every time? And, you got trading stamps to boot? Laundry detergent had free glasses, dishes or towels hidden inside the box? It was considered a great privilege to be taken out to dinner at a real restaurant with your parents? They threatened to keep kids back a grade if they failed...and they did? When a 57 Chevy was everyone's dream car...to cruise, peel out, lay rubber or watch submarine races, and people went steady? No one ever asked where the car keys were because they were always in the car, in the ignition, and the doors were never locked? Lying on your back in the grass with your friends and saying things like, "That cloud looks like a ...", and playing baseball with no adults to help kids with the rules of the game? Stuff from the store came without safety caps and hermetic seals because no one had yet tried to poison a perfect stranger? And with all our progress, don't you just wish, just once, you could slip back in time and savor the slower pace, and share it with the children of today? When being sent to the principal's office was nothing compared to the fate that awaited the student at home? Basically we were in fear for our lives, but it wasn't because of drive-by shootings, drugs, gangs, etc. Our parents and grandparents were a much bigger threat! But we survived because their love was greater than the threat. I am sharing this with you today because it ended with a double dog dare to pass it on. To remember what a double dog dare is, read on. And remember that the perfect age is somewhere between old enough to know better and too young to care. Decisions were made by going "eeny-meeny-miny-moe"? Mistakes were corrected by simply exclaiming, "Do Over"? "Race issue" meant arguing about who ran the fastest? Catching the fireflies could happily occupy an entire evening? It wasn't odd to have two or three "Best Friends"? The worst thing you could catch from the opposite sex was "cookies"? Having a weapon in school meant being caught with a slingshot? A foot of snow was a dream come true? Saturday morning cartoons weren't 30-minute commercials for action figures? "Oly-oly-oxen-free" made perfect sense? Spinning around, getting dizzy, and falling down was cause for giggles? The worst embarrassment was being picked last for a team? War was a card game? Baseball cards in the spokes transformed any bike into a motorcycle? Taking drugs meant orange-flavored chewable aspirin? Water balloons were the ultimate weapon? If you can remember most or all of these, then you have lived!!! Pass this on to anyone who may need a break from their "grown-up" life. I double-dog-dare-ya!
