

Edie Littlechild

March 15, 1938 - May 2, 1997
 You died 8 years ago on that May 2 day,
 Your heart gave out and ours cried out,
 Please Lord let her stay.
 But your time on earth was up.
 Now you lay in the grave today.
 Until Jesus Returns and God's Judgement Day.
 We have until then in our hearts is all the Memories of your Special Love as our Nana and Mom.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

The local bar was so sure that its bartender was the strongest man around that they offered a standing $1000 bet. The bartender would squeeze a lemon until all the juice ran into a glass, and hand the lemon to a patron. Anyone who could squeeze one more drop of juice out would win the money. Many people had tried over time - weightlifters, longshoremen, etc. but nobody could do it. One day a scrawny little man came in wearing thick glasses and a polyester suit, and said in a tiny, squeaky voice, "I'd like to try the bet. After the laughter had died down, the bartender said okay, grabbed a lemon, and squeezed away. He then handed the wrinkled remains of the rind to the little man. But the crowd's laughter turned to total silence as the man clenched his fist around the lemon and six more drops of juice fell into the glass. As the crowd cheered, the bartender paid him the $1000, and asked the little man, "What do you do for a living? Are you a lumberjack, a weight lifter, or what?" The man replied, "I work for Revenue Canada. "
