POLICE REPORT

During the evening of October 14th, McBride RCMP responded to a break and enter at the McBride Food Bank situated next door to the Seventh Day Adventist Church at 1075 Lammung Pit Road. A volunteer of the facility reported this incident after entering the premise where she discovered one of the dry-goods, storage rooms rummaged through. An inventory check revealed that the selective thieves loaded up a large plastic container allowing them to make off with a large portion of the food bank's canned food and beverages. The food bank, which was finally getting its inventory prepared for the upcoming winter season, recently acquired these food items from the good-hearted samaritans and charitable organizations of McBride. RCMP conducted a closer examination of the scene at which time it was determined that the front door leading inside the premise had been pried open. This matter is still under investigation and anyone who might have any information regarding this incident, is asked to contact Sgt. Kent KRZYZANOWSKI of the McBride Detachment or Crime Stoppers at (800)222-TIPS
