HAPPY THANKSGIVING!!!

MCBRIDE ROUNDHOUSE THEATRE

The McDADES' music, strong vocals in English and French are complemented by agile fiddling that draws on classical and jazz lines, moody low whistle and soprano saxophone, and complex and literate bass playing, backed by guitar and multi-ethnic percussion. Their work is full of side trips and improvisations, but always tight and smooth. The traditional Irish song "Rocky Road to Dublin" travels to a smoky jazz club with a soaring sax solo, the Mike Cross composition "The Bounty Hunter" trades its Southern flavor for a polyrhythmic Celtic folk rock arrangement, and a sizzling fiddle/whistle set cleverly titled "McKinley Morganfield's" borrows licks from legendary bluesman Muddy Waters. It's hot, creative, and fun. You can see The McDades Thursday, October 6th 8:00pm, at the McBride Roundhouse Theatre. Tickets are $20.00 at Steadmans.

THOUGHTS OF THE WEEK

I'm not the kind-of guy who objects to my wife having the last word. I'd just wish she'd get to it!

Into everyone's life, a little rain must fall, but this is ridiculous.

Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up.

Murphy's Laws

The first bug to hit a clean windshield lands directly in front of your eyes.

Don't force it, get a bigger hammer.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY NEWS

The Hospital Auxiliary North East Area Conference held in McBride was a great success. Twenty five out of town ladies from Quesnel, Ft. St. James, Pouce Coupe, Prince George and Vanderhoof attended. Bus connections and a few other problems caused a few other towns from attending.

Mayor Mike Frasier gave a welcoming address followed by Florence White, our North East Area Rep. and speaker Michael McMillan, Chief Operating Office from Northern Interior Health.

Dr. Michael Jackson gave a great slide presentation and Debbie Ladouceur spoke on wellness, healthy eating and exercise. We later all joined her together for a few steps in Circle Dancing. The Royal Purple Ladies served dinner followed by entertainers - "Two Local Guys" Bob and Harold with their humor. Shane and Sarah Bressette and their three children Elise, Kenton and Gabe played and sang bringing smiles and tears and a standing ovation.

Florence White stressed May 12th is "Provincial Hospital Auxiliary Day" all across BC and we must have a "Tea" or "Dinner" to celebrate a special day to recognise the hard work and volunteer hours and achievement in community service.
