McBRIDE ROUNDHOUSE THEATRE

Jim Byrnes - Blues Legend In Concert with Zubot & Dawson: Juno Award winning artist Jim Byrnes was born in St. Louis Missouri - that's blues country. He grew up on the city's north side. One of the neighbourhood bars had Ike and Tina Turner as the house band. As a teenager going to music clubs, he and his buddy were often the only white people in the place. "We never had any problems. We were too naive, too innocent, and had too much respect for the music and culture - they knew it; they could tell."

Zubot and Dawson, who you may remember from there stunning performance here two years ago, have been nominated for all kinds of music awards at home and nationally and won more than their share. They've performed at most of the major folk and jazz festivals across the country (in many cases, more than once) and it also seems like nobody in western Canada wants to make a record these days without one or the other or both of them in the studio. Somehow, they also find time to involve themselves in new projects like The Great Uncles of the Revolution, and solo recordings to boot. Tuesday, April 4th, 2006 8:00p.m. McBride Roundhouse Theatre. All seats $20.00 Tickets at Stedmans.
