Are you a man or an adolescent boy? Have you been a bully, been bullied or witnessed bullying at school? Are you concerned about violence in our community? Are you concerned about violence in our world? Are you interested in what makes men masculine? Do you have time to become involved in an anti-violence project? The BC Ministry of Community Services is funding "Partners in Prevention" grants designed to prevent violence against women and girls by changing attitudes and behaviours that lead to violence. Priority will be given to projects that focus on collaborating with men and boys to be partners in prevention. The Anti-Violence Programs at the Robson Valley Home Support Society would like to form a Men and Boys Advisory Group to develop a project proposal for the Robson Valley. If you are interested in shaping a prevention of violence project please call Rob Smith at 566-4797 or Elizabeth de Vries at 569-2266 by Friday, January 16th, 2007.
