THIS WEEKS EXCUSE

A man in his 40's bought a new BMW and was out on the interstate for a nice evening drive. The top was down, the breeze was blowing through her up. As the needle jumped up to 80 mph, he suddenly saw flashing red and blue lights behind him. "There's no way they can catch a BMW," he thought to himself and opened her up further. The needle hit 90, 100.... then the reality of the situation hit him. "What the heck am I doing?" he thought and pulled over.

The cop came up to him, took his license without a word, and examined it and the car. "It's been a long day, this is the end of my shift, and it's Friday the 13th. I don't feel like more paperwork, so if you can give me an excuse for your driving that I haven't heard before, you can go."
The guy thinks for a second and says, "Last week my wife ran off with a cop. I was afraid you were trying to give her back."
"Have a nice weekend," said the officer.

SPRIT of 2010

HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

2007 - McBride signs up with the Spirit of 2010 Hockey Tournament Vancouver, BC - January 30, 2007. The McBride Novice division tournament is the latest to register with the fifth annual Spirit of 2010 Hockey Tournament.

The more than 160 players taking part in the McBride Novice Spirit of 2010 Tournament starting February 2, will be part of a province-wide celebration of physical activity, amateur sport and the Spirit of BC.

"Thanks to tournaments like the McBride Novice, the Spirit of 2010 Hockey Tournament has steadily grown over the past five years to become the largest of its kind in Canada," said the Hon. Stan Hagen, Minister of Tourism, Sport and the Arts. "The tournament is about having fun and promoting amateur sport, while helping British Columbians meet our provincial goal of becoming 20% more active by the year 2010."

"The Spirit of 2010 Hockey Tournament is a great way for kids here in McBride to participate in the enthusiasm and energy that is building across British Columbia as we look forward to hosting the 2010 Winter Olympics," said the Hon. Shirley Bond, MLA for Prince George-Mount Robson. "This is also a great opportunity to showcase the quality of local sports here in the Robson Valley and the strong community spirit shown by the players, coaches, and other minor hockey volunteers in McBride."

Across the province, more than 42,000 young hockey players are expected to register in 200 community tournaments. Every registered player will receive a commemorative hockey puck and certificate. Each tournament receives a Spirit of 2010 trophy, a banner to hang in the arena and one limited edition Spirit of 2010 hockey jersey to award a player showing exemplary team spirit and fair play.

"The Spirit of 2010 Hockey Tournament showcases amateur hockey, promotes active living and builds community spirit. 2010 Legacies Now is proud to be part of this province-wide tradition for the past five years," said Bruce Dewar, chief executive officer for 2010 Legacies Now.

The Spirit of 2010 Hockey Tournament is presented by the Province of British Columbia, 2010 Legacies Now, B.C. Hockey and the Vancouver Canucks. Tournaments across British Columbia are invited to register by visiting www.2010LegaciesNow.com

It's in your hands.

January 2007 - It is with great pleasure that we invite you to our Second Crossroads Conference (Reducing Motor Vehicle Crashes in Northern BC) in Prince George, British Columbia, which will be held on October 16 and 17, 2007. With this advance notice, we hope that you will be able to join us as we continue to examine and discuss ways to reduce motor vehicle crashes in our respective communities across the North. Along with our partners, we are pleased to extend this invitation to you and hope that you will be able to participate. An outline of the conference's activities and registration will follow. Limited travel subsidies are available on a first-come, first-served basis, so call early! For more information, or to register for the conference, please contact Kathleen Meise, Crossroads Conference 2007 Coordinator, at 250-562-3215 or email: arcand@bcforestsafe.org.
