Arrozarcement:

There are hard to understand injustices that seem to come to us all... but lately it seems there are pile-ups. There are too many funerals... too much pain of every kind. Even Christians who have committed their lives to Christ experience suffering. Why?!

The Bible does in fact reveal profound answers for many of these questions. Since the beginning of October on Saturday mornings at 9:30 until the end of the year; millions of Adventists, and their friends, will be probing the Bible for assurances that address these topics. Come and join them...bring your questions and your objections too if you wish (it will be small group discussions) or just listen as struggling Christians ponder what the Bible has to say about our agonies.

The title of the three month study is The Refiner's Fire.

The topic this week is "Struggling With All Energy" Dealing more specifically with: What is the role of human will and willpower, in the battle with self and sin? How can we avoid the trap of letting our feelings rule the decisions we make? Why must we persevere and not give up in the crucible?

The Seventh-day Adventist Church is 5 kilometres west of McBride at the top of the hill on Lanning Pit Road. Come and listen or participate as we confront ourselves with these Biblical topics. November 10, 9:30 a.m. Seventh-day Adventist Church.
