She was preceded in death by an infant daughter, 6 brothers, 1 grandson, and 4 great-grandchildren. Famile grew up on a farm near Chambersburg, PA. As a youth she gave her heart to the Lord, and was baptized into the Brethren-in-Christ Church After her marriage to Mervin she joined the Mennonite Church and was a faithful member until death. Her marriage led her through many and varied experiences. There were five or six years as a farm wife, helping to milk cows and tend chickens; then ten years of gardening, baking and butchetring to supply their farmer's market business, during which time her husband was ordained to the ministry. She faithfully and courageously carried on at home while he served as an evangelist and was often away from home.
