WALKING TRAIL

Take a walk on the Dominion Creek Walking Trail!

Improvements have been made to this trail including cedar chips to over half the trail, signs, a map of the trail and a bench. The trail starts behind the hospital and comes out at Kiln Restaurant. Take a walk on your lunch break and sit by the stream listening to the birds sing and the creek gurgle. It only takes 15 minutes to get to the bench and back from either end.

Thanks to the following for making these improvements possible:
TRC Cedar Ltd.; R. B. Hatchard Contracting; Village of McBride
Public Works staff; local artists Dave Marchant & Shellaigh Foster;
Bubba & Rokey Enterprises; A. C. & T. Construction; Robson Valley Home Hardware; Boyd Anderson; Ron & Sharon Hawkins;
the McBride Active Communities Group and the Active Communities Initiative. "Everyone Active, Every Day!"

THANK YOU

"Thank you" to my many friends and neighbours for their visits, cards and lovely flowers, during my short stay in the hospital.
"Thanks" also to the nursing staff, Dr. Cowburn and Dr. Jackson, who are always so helpful and caring. McBride is so fortunate to have our lovely clean hospital and staff that keep it that way. A great place to be when your not feeling well.

-Eileen Lawrence
To All Our Friends & Family - There are no words to express explain how we feel, McBride is above and beyond the best place to live in the world.

Thank you again,
Love Mike & Glenda Molendyk

Spangler, Buell Wedding

Jesse Neil Spangler and Andrea (Annie) Jean Buell were wed on April 13, 2008, in McMinnville SDA Church, McMinnville Oregon, USA. They meet at Mission College of Evangelism in Oregon. Annie's parents are Daniel Willard Buell and Cynthia Darlene (Harper) Buell from Lafayette Oregon. Her grandparents include Betty Buell from New Meadows Idaho, Keith & Lily Wilson from Altonnoute Springs Florida, James Harper from Walla Walla, Washington. Jesse's parents are Daniel Neil Spangler and Terri Lynn (Ashley) Spangler from McBride, British Columbia. His grandparents, Olive Martin from Abbotsford, British Columbia and Ed & Mary Beerman from Brewster, Washington.

Attendants, Maid of Honor-Betsy Buell, sister of the bride, Bridesmaids-Joni Spangler friend and sister of the groom, Brenda Rogers friend of the bride. Best Man-Jordan Spangler brother of the groom-Groomsman-Evan Owen friend of the bride and groom-Anthony Largent "brother" of the bride. Flower girl-Talia Clayborn, friend of the bride, Bible Boy-Brian McMillen, friend of the bride.

The Church was decorated by Jesse & Annie with Birchwood candelabras, with the center piece being arbor accented with lights and flowers and greenery. The reception was at the church with 215 family and friends in attendance. It was catered with a light soup fare, gourmet breads, cheeses and dip & fruit salads. The cake was a tiered blue fondant with flowers and ribbon. The grooms cake replicated a birch bark tree trunk with their names carved in a heart on the front with woodland animals on the top. Jesse and Annie along with family and friends provided musical entertainment-there was door prize gifts for the guests, including Jesse's presentation to the father of the bride of 14 cows, the official purchase price for Annie, he threw in a rooster for inflation. They left the church through a tunnel of sparklers and were driven away by the best man Jordan. They spent their honeymoon in the San Juan Islands, Washington, and are making their home in Abbotsford B.C.
