ODE TO MGBRIDE

There's a village in the Rockies
So small and serene
Thirty years ago
It was unbeknownst to me.
I came with my husband
With two kids in tow A bus or a train.

When finally arriving all dusty and hot It was the friendliness of the people To teach in McBride
We thought in the suburbs of Prince George we'd abide.
With eager anticipation we deboarded the plane
Only to discover we'd still need ooking for adventure new place to go.
At Vancouver Tim got got the call

Quite a transition

But for the Dunns it turned out to be
A very good decision.

We liked it so much we decided to stay

And raise our family in the McBride way. From city to country can be Quite a transition

We'll give it a couple of years we said
And then back to Vancouver to family we'll head.
Well, the years passed and friendships were forged.
Another child born, no time to be bored.
Our lives were fulfilled with work, family, and friends.
The hockey, oh the hockey, so many weekends.
Our teaching careers each came in turn
We were young and idealistic We were young and idealistic And had a lot to learn
But where have the years gone It's been almost thirty
Since we took that fateful trip
From the big city.

We thank you McBride for the good times you've shared. For the wonderful Valley and the people who cared.
