DOA SINFIEL

Thank you to all our families, friends, and the community of McBride. We thank you for your help, donations, prayers, and support. Thanks to everyone who sent donations to the FMU (Family Medicine Unit) staff. We have learnt over the last four months what it is like to live in a small community. There is nothing like the care, the friendship, or the love that flows. To our honorary pallbearers, Laura Van Dijk, and everyone who helped set up for the memorial and gathering after our greatest thanks, it meant a lot. To the doctors and nurses who worked with Glenda before she went to Prince George a big thanks to you. Mr. Venter thank you for a great job of the service and to Steve and Dianne for your well done support. To all who sent food, cards, and made calls of support thank you. -Thank you from our hearts,

Mike Molendyk and family and the Hooker family.

To Ashley Thiffault and Bayley Yetter Thank You so much for your love, support and compassion. Your kindness is what we needed to keep our chins up in this difficult time. Your friendship means the world to us.

-Love From: The King of the Gingers and His Princess Check Our ABC "Awesome Bountiful

SPRUGE KINGS NEWS

The hard reality of life in the hockey world is that one day you are as likely to be cut as you are to make it and for 25 hockey players their name still stands on the Spruce Kings roster. Following the 8-07 victory over the Quesnel Regency Millionaires, the Prince George Spruce Kings had to do the unenviable task of reducing their roster down to the allowable size of 23 for the start of the regular season. The Spruce Kings roster includes the 23 players identified through the process of the main training camp, intra-squad game and exhibition season and it also includes two names from last year, Damien Kelo and Grant Toulmin are still away at WHL camps. Players that arrived at the Spruce Kings main camp with no guarantee of playing for the team this season include Brad Anderson, Tyson Hall, Geoff Morgan and Jordan Simpson. Those four join off-season acquisitions and signings Alex Allan, Sean Ambrosic, Adam Baldassare, Joe Becker, Rlay Berra, Nick DeSousa, Justin Fillion and Michael Nardi. The eleven returning players that round out the roster are Brandon Busse, Dan Correale, Zach Davies, Colten Derickson, Kevin Genoe, Laine Koyes, Matt Lees, Wes McLeod, Joe Morgan, Sam Muchalla and Johnny Van Siclen.

Elight Is Enough For Final Pre-Season Game

On Sunday afternoon the Prince George Spruce Kings did everything right in their final pre-season game and came away with an 8-0 win over the visiting Quesnel Regency Millionaires. Down to the last game before the start of the regular season, the Spruce Kings did everything right in their final pre-season game and came away using and did they ever. A total of nine players finished with two points and another out with a mission to prove that they are ready to play and did they ever.
