MGBRIDE ROUNDHOUSE THEATRE

The McBride Roundhouse Theatre presents a Wild Night
There was a place during Prohibition, where people gathered to drink and dance and forgot their woes. Would-be customers were often met at the door of an unmarked building by steely eyes peering through a small slot. Once inside, these ordinary folks carried on with reckless abandon and rubbed shoulders with notorious gangsters like Al Capone and John Dillinger.
They called this place a speakeasy.
A NIGHT AT THE SPEAKEASY (A FUN-draiser for the Roundhouse Theatre) - Saturday, December 13 1928 8:00p.m. until

Join us for a night of fun, 80 years ago, when mobsters like Al Capone and Bugsy Siegle rubbed shoulders with Hollywood Stars like Al Jolson, Rudolph Valintino and the beautiful Clara Bow. Flappers danced to the Charleston. Famous Baseball Players like Babe Ruth, aviators like Charlest Lindberg and comedians like the Marx brothers could all be found down at Joeys....downstairs. Live Music by BLUE SYNTAX - Come in 1920s costume or just dress to impress (Prize for best 1920s costume) Dancing, Prizes, Games, Cheap Drinks & Designated Drivers •Tickets $30.00 each, or $50.00 per couple - Appetizers and 1 drink included with the price of Admission. Hosted by The Citaling Grizzly Neighbourhood Pub- Downstairs - Tell'em "Big Joey Sent You" Please contact The Little McBride Paper with all coming events, news, trivia, comments, anything!! Thank You to the McBride Elks and Community Forest for their generous donations to the McBride Figure Skating Club. Your support and encouragement means so much to us.

"The McBride and District Chamber of Commerce would like to thank the participants and sponsors of the Festival of Lights Santa Parade and Late Night Shopping. Thank you to everyone who braved the blizzard and came out to watch the parade and meet Santa! Special thanks to: -Parade participants; The McBride Snowmobile Club, members of the McBride RCMP detachment, Mark Froese and the lucky hot tub revelers, (next year Santa wants in!), -The McBride Volunteer Fire Department who delivered Santa in style and manned the burn barrels... and of course Santa Claus! (And let's not forget Santa's helpers.) Thank you to all of the sponsors who helped make the evening a success: Odds 'n' Ends who donated the goody baskets, Matthew Wheeler who donated his time to take pictures, Jane and Lester Blouin who were responsible for the sleigh rides, and last but not least - Mellany Ford, organizer extraordinaire! To anyone we have missed THANK YOU - we couldn't have done it without your support! A final "Thank you" to all of the businesses that stayed open until 8:00 pm and the people who took advantage of the Late Night Shopping opportunity!" people who took advantage of the Late Night Shopping opportunity!"

NEW WEBSITE-AN INVITATION TO ALL BUSINESS OWNERS.

Economic Development Office is in the process of establishing parameters for the new Economic Development Website for McBride & District.. It is our objective to offer accurate information in three specific areas:

- Business Resource:
 - a. availability of funding;
 - b. new business guide, etc
- Business Growth:
 - a. current opportunities
 - b. grants, etc.
 - c. business of the month promotion/profile
- Site Selectors:
 - a, reasons to invest/relocate
 - b. find property/space, etc.

We propose to offer a Directory of vacant land and space to make site selection as easy as possible for potential investors by maintaining a database of available industrial & commercial space in the District. In addition, we plan to offer a Relocation Assistance Program to help make the process of starting new business, expanding or relocating as seamless as possible. Finding the right people and the right location is a key to a successful business transition:

Here is how you can help:

- 1. Have your (or your client's if you are the realtor) vacant space listed;
- 2. Have your (or your client's as above) vacant land listed;
- 3. Have your business "spotlighted" ("Business of the Month")

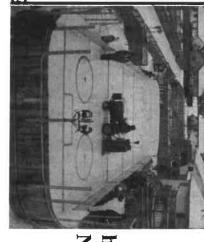

If you would like to participate contact Margaret Graine: edo@mcbride.ca or 250-569-7556 before December 20/ 2008. Detailed information can be THANK YOU IN ADVANCE! submitted at a later date.
