VISA FRAUD

Just a heads up for everyone regarding the latest in Visa fraud. The newest Visa/Master Card scam is very active in southern Alberta right now and moving. This one is slick since they provide us with all the information, except the one piece they want. Note, the callers do not ask for our card number; they already have it. The scam works like this: Person calling says, "This is (name), and I'm calling from the Security and Fraud Department at VISA. My Badge number is 12460. Your card has been flagged for an unusual purchase pattern, and I'm calling to verify. This would be on your VISA card which was issued by (name of bank). Did you purchase an Anti-Telemarketing Device for $497.99 from a marketing company based in Arizona?" When we say 'No', the caller continues with, "Then we will be issuing a credit to your account. This is a company we have been watching and the charges range from $297 to $497, just under the $500 purchase pattern that flags most cards. Before your next statement, the credit will be sent to (gives you your address), is that correct?" We say 'yes'. The caller continues - "I will be starting a Fraud Investigation. If you have any questions, you should call the 1-800 number listed on the back of your card (1-800-VISA) and ask for Security. You will need to refer to this Control Number: The caller then gives you a 6 digit number. "Do you need me to read it again?" Here's the IMPORTANT part on how the scam works: The caller then says, "I need to verify you are in possession of your card". He'll ask us to 'turn your card over and look for some numbers'. There are 7 numbers; the first 4 are part of our card number, the last 3 are the Security Numbers that verify we are the possessor of the card. These are the numbers we sometimes must use to make internet purchases to prove we have the card. The caller will ask us to read the last 3 numbers to him. After we tell the caller the 3 numbers, he'll say, "That is correct, I just needed to verify that the card has not been lost or stolen, and that you still have your card. Do you have any other questions?" After we say no, the caller then thanks us and states, "Don't hesitate to call back if you do", and hangs up. We actually say very little, and they never ask for or tell us the card number. If we call the actual VISA Security Department at the number on the back of our card, they will tell us it was a scam. The chances are that they will also inform us that, within 15 minutes of the call a new purchase of under $500 has been charged to our card. What the scammers want is the 3-digit PIN number on the back of the card. Don't give it to them. Instead, tell them you'll call VISA or Master Card directly for verification of their conversation. VISA will never ask for anything on the card as they already know the information. If we give the scammers your 3 Digit PIN Number, we think we're receiving a credit. However, by the time we get our statement we'll see charges for purchases we didn't make, and by then it's more difficult to actually file a fraud report, and there could be delays or questions about credits. It appears that this is a very active scam, and evidently quite successful. If YOU do get such a call the credit card company should be notified and a police report filed.
