CHALLENGE

Are you up for the Energetic Olympics Challenge? McBride residents are invited to sign-up on-line and help the village score more points in One Sky's Energetic Olympics competition. Sixteen B.C. municipalities and their residents are engaged in a friendly competition to reduce their energy consumption and carbon footprint by scoring points in five "events": transportation, heating, electricity, food & consumption, and goods & services. Residents can register on One Sky's website (www.onesky.ca/energetic) and can score points for shopping at the Farmers' Market, carpooling to work, changing out light-bulbs and reducing the amount of packaging they use. Gold, silver, and bronze winners will be announced after the competition ends September 30th. The Village of McBride is in the Lightweight division (for towns with populations of less than 5,000 residents) and has 3,940 points. This puts it in third place in its division, behind Burns Lake (4,855 points) and the Queen Charlottes (9,215 points.) Individuals can register at www.onesky.ca/energetic. For more information, please contact the village office or Kim Struthers, One Sky, (250) 877-6030 or kim.struthers@onesky.ca.
