TALKING ABOUT GROSS COUNTRY-SKIING

It was almost end of the winter. Nice Sunday afternoon. We - when I say we, I mean my wife Nadia and me - we were slipping and sliding on our cross-country skies on an old - not used any more forestry road. Thin bush around. Some spruces, few birches. Sun was going down, everything was so peaceful and quiet - almost romantic atmosphere. We were slipping and sliding, enjoying all that beauty, when - screeeaaan - terrible scream. We froze and listened. Then again the terrible screeeaaan - it was going right to our bone marrow. And then again the terrible scream - it was like if a woman is suffering terrible pain. And then - oh yes then we knew. Yes she was really suffering. She was so lonely. She desperately needed, somebody to love her. Years later I have read in some booklet, or a flyer, where a knowledgeable man is talking about cougars and where he besides other things is saying, that very few people are lucky enough to hear that scream of a female cougar in mating period. He says that they who are, describing it as nerve-racking and terror-striking, so there you have it. So much about being anxious to make love.

-Greeting from George.

THANK YOU

Thank you to the McBride Community Forest and the "Loaded" Slo-Pitch Team for funding the liability insurance for all of the local community sports under the "McBride Community Sport Association". The $2,000,000 Liability Insurance will cover the following teams: McBride Slo-Pitch, Robson Valley Youth Soccer, Robson Valley Youth Softball, Robson Valley T-Ball, Robson Valley Under 18 Soccer, Community Basketball, Community Volleyball, & Community Badminton. This will possibly help lower the registration cost for all team and individuals.
