FALL FAIR

September 24 - mark this day in your calendar! Fall Fair in McBride at the Elks Hall. Events include: Fall Fair displays, Elks and Royal Purple BBQ, bike and pet parade for children, Horseshoe tournament with prizes (sponsored by the McBride Hotel). In conjunction with World Rivers Day - enter to win a local artist's painting if you go to Fall Fair events at the Elks Hall and events at the Community Hall sponsored by the Robson Valley Arts and Culture Council and the Whistle Stop Gallery. Dunk tank, more events to be announced. It's time for the whole family to start thinking about what they could enter in the Fall Fair - maybe the perfect carrot from the garden, a jar of delicious jam, a story or poem, something stitched, baked, or carved. You will find more information on how to enter your creations in up coming editions of The Little McBride Paper.

Summer Knitting

The Health Unit in McBride has requested newborn baby hats (head size 32-38 cm) for a campaign in October. The hats can be knitted or crocheted using any colour yarn as long as it is complemented with some purple in it. There are some kits already made up at Odds 'n Ends but you are welcome to use your own yarn as well. Bring completed hats to Sandy Birnie, 835 Bridge Road, along with your name. A tag with your name will be attached to your hat(s) and given to new babies born in the valley and the extra hats will be sent to Vancouver for distribution. Thank you for your participation in this worthwhile cause. More information about this project will be announced closer to the campaign date.
