THANK YOU

Community for their support of our Annual Harvest Supper, your support is truly appreciated. We also thank everyone for all the donations and the help, from cooking, to the serving and ultimately the washing up that made the evening such a success!

Thank You - The McBride & District Hospital would like to say a big thank you to the ladies Auxiliary for once again giving their time to volunteer at the recent Mammography Clinic. This is a valuable service to our community and we very much appreciate their involvement which helps these programs to continue.

One Year Ago October 15 My Cabin Burned To The Ground. With the help of 135 friends & neighbours from Blue River to Dome Creek, I have been able to rebuild my life & I thank you all again.

-D. Ryckman Thank you - I would like to thank Dr. Jackson, nurses, and staff

Thank you - I would like to thank Dr. Jackson, nurses, and staff for the loving care given to me when in hospital. When you are not well there is no better place than the McBride hospital.

Many thanks, Dorothy Hewit Thank you! We would like to thank the community, the hockey players and the military for their generous donations to the food bank last Friday. 743 non perishable items were received as well as 220 lbs. of fresh produce and $25.00 cash. Thank you for your ongoing support of this program - it makes a big difference in this community! From the Seventh Day Adventist Church Food Bank.
