TRUTH ABOUT LIFE...

The truths about life, that little children have learnt:
 If your sister hits you, don't hit her back. They always catch the second person.

The great truths about life, that adults have learnt:
 Raising teenagers is like nailing Jell-O to a tree. Wrinkles don't hurt. Families are like fudge . . . mostly sweet, with a few nuts.

Today's mighty oak is just yesterday's nut that held its ground.
 Laughing is good exercise. It's like jogging on the inside.
 Middle age is when you choose your cereal for the fiber, not the toy.

Great truths about growing old:
 Growing old is mandatory; growing up is optional. Forget the health food. I need all the preservatives I can get.
 When you fall down, you wonder what else you can do while you're down there.
 You're getting old when you get the same sensation from a rocking chair that you once got from a roller coaster.
