QUARTERLY HYMN SING

McBride Mennonite Church on Sunday, June 23rd, 7:30pm.
Everyone Welcome.

Shirley Anne Cunningham

1934-2013. Shirley passed away peacefully on Wednesday, June 12, 2013, at Golden and District Hospital, knowing she was loved by many. Shirley was born September 20, 1934 in Alvarado, Texas.

She married Donald Will Cunningham in 1957 and they had two children: Will and Anna. The family then came to Canada with her family and homesteaded in McBride, BC. Shirley lived there for 49 years. Her last years were spent in Golden, BC accompanied by her son Will. She is survived by her son Will and her daughter Anna, her sister Bettie and brother Bill; five grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Predeceased to Shirley was her husband Donald in 2007.

Shirley was a strong woman and will be missed dearly. A Celebration of Life for Shirley Cunningham will take place at a later date in McBride, BC and will be open to the public. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial donations be made to The Canadian Lung Association.

*She never whined and never cried,
Although she lived in chronic pain.
Now we have to say goodbye,
but know she's right as rain.
No more gasping, no more hurting,
No more oxygen line.
She left her body in this world,
Knowing that we'd be fine.
So dry your eyes and wipe your nose,
Stop shedding all those tears.
If she could stand all that she stood,
We should have no fears.
She no longer hurts, no longer gasps,
no longer needs drugs to breathe.
And all she wants for all of us,
Is that we all shall live in peace.*
