Approx. cost is $10-$12 for 3 sessions for the "Romper" class and $25-$30 for 3 sessions for the senior group. He specializes in Ballet-Jazz, Modern Dance and Creative Dance and for the little ones it would be more co-ordination skills (hops, skips, gallops, creative dance and rhythmic movements). He needs a certain number in each group to make it worth his wild. If you are interested, please call Kathy Molendyk at 250-569-3239 and let me know the age of your child. We always appreciate any donations of food or money towards these baskets from the Community & Thank you in advance.

THANK YOU

Friday was a great event! Thanks to all the merchants for putting on their best and surprising us with specials and as usual old fashioned good service! Santa, the Fire Dept., Chamber members, Santa's elves, RCMP, and all the volunteers donating their time to make it a festive night. Merchants decorated and made it a "festival of Lights". This year Lester and Jane Blouin again gave everyone a treat! There's nothing like riding in a wagon on a frosty night behind two beautiful horses! "Santa's Workshop" was enjoyed, thanks to the 3 elves who kept working to ready the toys while Santa was busy listening to the children's wish lists and giving toys, candy and oranges. Thanks to the community who turned out to support and enjoy each other. There's nothing like a good jaw wag. Even the weather was cooperative. This is the start of the "Buy Local" card. Every $10 spent locally will be validated at restaurants, businesses, grocery and gas station. Keep your eye out for other specials with this Chamber promotion. It continues until January 15, 2014!!!

On December 11 & 12 at 7:00pm, our stunning cast will be taking the stage in Vern Harder's play 'She Was Only Marginally Modest'.
