If you are interested in helping, please contact Kathy Molendyk at 569-3239 or Angela Traquair at 569-0211. Unfortunately, if we can't get enough help these activities won't be able to happen.

GRIZZLIES REACH FINAL IN MACKENZIE

The McBride Grizzlies Midget Hockey team battled through some adversity last weekend to reach the final at a 5-team tournament in Mackenzie, BC. The Grizzlies had not played a game in almost 9 weeks, had a rash of injuries, were fighting the cold/flu bug, and it showed when they lost to the Williams Lake Lusnier select team 3-1 in the first game. Grizzlies forward, Shaelyn Braaten had a goal called back because the net was dislodged which would have tied the game at 2-2.

In game two against the Smithers Castle Midgets, the Grizzlies remained in hibernation until the third period when they began to get their skating legs and attempted a come from behind effort. The Grizzlies fell short losing 7-6. Ryan Moore, Valemount products Darton Griffin and Hunter Friesen along with Austin Gibson all rallied with goals for the Grizzlies. Bryden Basran notched a pair of goals in the loss. Dylan and Julie Vizza both had two assists each with Billie Littlechild, Friesen, Griffin and Keith Shawara adding assists.

In the third and must win game on Saturday, the Grizzlies took on the Mackenzie Victory Banham team. The Grizzlies started slow but eventually had a strong effort winning 13-3. Dawson Drader notched a hat-trick with Dylan Vizza and Shawara each potting 2 goals apiece. Moore, Basran, Griffin, Julie Vizza, Bret Jones and Noah Jancke also scored goals. Shawara and Griffin pitched in with 2 assists each. Single assists came from Moore, Jones and Dylan Vizza. Grizzlies goaltender, Robert Knezacek, had a bounce back game.

Sunday morning saw the Grizzlies play their fourth game of the journey and another must win if they had any chance to reach the final. The Mackenzie Midget Knights were the opponents who were hoping to reach the final with a win in their home tournament. In a rare occurrence, which still mystifies coaches Gerry Porrier, Brian Shawara and Brady Knezacek, the Grizzlies came out flying in the early morning game despite the time change. Both teams traded chances and there was no score after the first period. In the second, Griffin scored for the Grizzlies with Jones and Drader assisting. With a 1-0 lead going into the third, the Grizzlies exploded for 5 goals with Basran, Shawara, Moore, Friesen and Jones scoring. Jones also notched 2 assists with assists coming from Drader, Basran, Jancke, Austin Gibson and Littlechild. Grizzlies goaltender, Knezacek, had his strongest game of the journey thus far begging the shut-out. With 3 teams tied with a 2 win and 2 loss record, the Grizzlies
