VILLAGE OF MCBRIDE

DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR - TREASURER

The Village of McBride is seeking a qualified professional to become an integral part of its management team. The successful applicant will be well organized, fully proficient in an office environment, work well under pressure with multiple deadlines, the ability to communicate effectively and tactfully orally and in writing.

Reporting to the Chief Administrative Officer, the Deputy Administrator – Treasurer will assist in:

- the preparation of Council agendas, minutes, correspondence, reports and confidential information
- the organization, preparation and execution of elections and by-elections
- the receipt and disbursement of municipal funds as approved by Council
- the preparation of bylaws and maintenance of the Bylaw register
- all accounting functions such as accounts receivable, payable, payroll, sub ledger and general ledger entries
- the preparation of budget and financial statements as requested by the CAO
- front counter staff and the ICBC, Motor Vehicles, Vital Statistics and cemetery functions
- attend Council meetings in the absence of the CAO
- labour relations and other related duties as requested.

Experience in Muniware or related computerized accounting system and in the interpretation and application of related Acts and regulations is a definite asset.

This is a full-time, permanent position, which is excluded from the bargaining unit. The Village of McBride offers a competitive salary and benefits package.

Please forward a covering letter and resume quoting Deputy Administrator - Treasurer by Friday, April 2nd, 2015 to mayor@mcbride.ca or mail to Village of McBride, Box 519, McBride, B.C., V0J 2E0

Village of McBride, Chief Administrative Officer

The Village of McBride - a friendly, small rural community supported by forestry, agriculture and tourism, is looking for a new Chief Administrative Officer.

Nestled between the Rocky Mountains and the North Cariboo Mountains within the Robson Valley, McBride is strategically located on Highway 16, it is rich in history and is known for its spectacular scenery, and outdoor recreation.

We require an innovative individual with strong leadership, administrative and financial skills for a community wanting to re-position itself in today's market place to attract residents, business, and industry respectful of the natural beauty and environment of the area.

Working collaboratively with Mayor and Council, you will have overall responsibility for managing the affairs of the corporation. You will provide the leadership skills required to lead staff and play a key role with council in planning and executing a strategic vision that meets both current and future needs of McBride.

Your background includes strong credentials and several years in a senior administrative role. You fully understand the challenges facing remote, rural communities and can demonstrate your capabilities as a senior executive. You have a sound understanding of local governance, and developed human resources skills.

This would be an ideal position for a comprehensive, experienced CAO looking to make a difference and for work-life balance.

What's In It for You:

- The opportunity to use the sum of your life's experience and knowledge;
- A council that is ready to be what it needs to be, to meet the needs of the community;
- A staff that is ready to be mentored and encouraged to grow;
- An unsurpassed living environment;

Candidates are invited to submit their resume in confidence quoting Chief Administrative Officer - 2015 by Wednesday, April 15, 2015.

MAIL:

Village of McBride

Box 519

McBride, B.C., V0J 2E0

EMAIL: mayor@mcbride.ca

We express our appreciation to all applicants for their interest in this position; however only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
