ELKS ROYAL PURPLE NEWS

McBride Receives $16,000 - The McBride Elks and Royal Purple have been successful in receiving Community Gaming Funds for the Robson Valley. This year we received 6 applications from local clubs, organizations and schools in the amount of $34,000.00. We are happy to announce that we received $16,000.00 that will be distributed to McBride Secondary School PAC, McBride Centennial School PAC, McBride Minor Hockey, McBride Figure Skating, and McBride Seventh Day Adventist Food Bank to either help lower fees, provide workshops, food, transportation costs, etc. for the children and residences of McBride. We have applied for these funds for the past 10 years and are proud to say that we are getting close to $200,000.00 being distributed to various local community groups, clubs, schools and organizations. We will be applying for the 2016 Community Gaming Grant in September. If your club, organization, etc. needs financial support, please do not hesitate to apply. For more info, contact Kathy Molendyk.

COMING EVENTS

If I had one last chance, I would not keep you long,
The bond that we had is strong enough to carry on,
Inside the songs we sing, the memory of you will bring us
Closer to everything that's keeping us all a team.
If I had one last chance to say goodbye, I'd tell you That I'd miss you until the day I die.
If I could see your face in front of me once again,
The room would brighten up and the world would See me grin.

I can't believe that 2 years have gone by since you where taken from us by stupidity of adults. Not 1 day or moment goes by that you are not in our thought. We miss you so much our beautiful little girl.

Love
Mom, Dad, your brothers Jordan, Dillon, Calvin, Bradly, your baby sister Chloe as well as Grandma, Nana and Papa. Grandma Prince and your Prince family, all your aunts and uncles, cousins. We all love and miss you dearly.

Take a Break in McBride...B.G.'s Friendliest Town!!
