ELKS ROYAL PURPLE NEWS

McBride Receives $16,000 - The McBride Elks and Royal Purple have been successful in receiving Community Gaming Funds for the Robson Valley. This year we received 6 applications from local clubs, organizations and schools in the amount of $34,000.00. We are happy to announce that we received $16,000.00 that will be distributed to McBride Secondary School PAC, McBride Centennial School PAC, McBride Minor Hockey, McBride Figure Skating, and McBride Seventh Day Adventist Food Bank to either help lower fees, provide workshops, food, transportation costs, etc. for the children and residences of McBride. We have applied for these funds for the past 10 years and are proud to say that we are getting close to $200,000.00 being distributed to various local community groups, clubs, schools and organizations. We will be applying for the 2016 Community Gaming Grant in September. If your club, organization, etc. needs financial support, please do not hesitate to apply. THANK YOU

The community of McBride is more than amazing. It is kind and generous and helpful and giving and so much more!! The BC Children's Hospital BBQ and Pie Sale was a massive success but with that success there was massive donations and volunteerism. Thank you to Ben Blixrud, Tony Vizza, Darrell and Diane Roth, Kevin Taphorn, Raj Basran, Les Barlow, Edge Tracy, Mike Moseley, Rose Sutter, Linda Mosdel, Rosanna Koida, Dave and Clara Appleby, Doug Monroe, Erich Monroe, Lauren Monroe, and Dian Monroe. Appreciation to the huge help from Kairyn Jancke, the Grade 7s and their exchange student buddies and chaperones for setup and takedown. Thank you to McBride Community Forest Corp., Robson Valley Home Hardware, Telus, McBride AG Foods, Giggling Grizzly Pub, GFS, McBride Husky, and Robson Valley Rec Centre. The winner of the autographed Henrik Sedin Canucks Jersey was Ethan Pinch. The winner of the Red-Neck Tailgate Party Raffle was Boyd Anderson. The Scotiabank Branch staff aspires to new heights every year and has shown great commitment to this cause close to our hearts.
