HAPPY EASTER EVERYONE!!!

In loving Memory of our Mom

Elizabeth (Betty) Joanne Bartlett
April 6th, 1927 - April 17th, 2012.
*This day is remembered and quietly kept,
No words are needed, we shall never forget,
For those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day.
Unseen and unheard but always near,
So loved, so missed and so very dear.*

Love Always Your Family

SHO-TAI

Sho-Tai is returning to McBride. Level 2 Sho-Tai Practitioner Evan Dougherty will be back in McBride on April 24 & 25, at the North Country Lodge. Sho-Tai assesses the body through muscle testing, also known as Kinesiology. Each person is unique, in their genetics & overall health history, so a food or herb that is beneficial & healing to one person, may actually be harmful to another - Terry Bell, the creator of Sho-Tai refers to the negative effects as being like a cow eating meat. The major organ & gland that are causing the disturbances in the health of the body are determined through kinesiology, along with the reading of the eyes, tongue & teeth. Different health events cause color changes & markings on various areas of the body. Testing is also done to determine 2 or 3 herbs which will aid the body in recovering health. During this visit, complementary body stretching techniques, which help the body regain healthy physical alignment, will also be available. To book an appointment or for questions, please contact Kelly at 250-968-4400.

DOWN TOWN THRIFT STORE

We will be CLOSED on Good Friday, April 14. The Ang/United Church will be having service the 3rd Sundays of every month at 11:30 and the other Sundays will be at 10 o'clock as usual.

Notice from the Downtown Thrift Store - It has come to our attention that a Framed Paper Tole Art Piece (3 Dimensional Paper Art) of Red Cardinals was Sold in error from The Downtown Thrift Store in recent weeks. It was NOT FOR SALE. It was donated in Memory of a local resident by her family, and they are distraught that it was sold. It was for Display Only and had a Not For Sale Sticker on it. We are appealing to whoever bought it to please return it to the Thrift Store and your money will be refunded. Please contact Theima Molendyk at 250-569-0082.
