CYCLISTS

On July 15th, 25 cyclists from Austin Texas University passed through McBride, but not before stopping at the Anglican United Church for relief from camp food, and a roof over their heads while they slept. A place to wash clothes was so appreciated. Showers were provided at the recreation centre, thanks to Shirley Bond's office, Danielle Alan's, and Rick Thompson's efforts. The McBride Valenmount Anglican United Church congregations, plus a few friends in the community, provided a spaghetti and meat sauce dinner with veggie trays, and garlic bread, with Angel Food cake ice cream and berries for dessert. Acting Mayor Harold Edwards joined for dinner and engaged in a question and answer session as we got to know the students better and they got to know a little about the Valley. Ice cream bars, compliments of Kevin Taphorn/ McBride Husky were enjoyed while visiting before turning in for the night. Morning came early, and the group were treated to scrambled eggs, sausages, oatmeal and toast juice and coffee. Fresh home made buns, thanks Irma, lunch meat, cheese, a few home made squares and cookies, and left over food were packed away for lunch on the road. Prep time was spent getting bikes ready for the days ride, as well a dedication ceremony was held where each rider dedicated the days ride to those in need of being held up, (a special thanks to our group) each one of them has been touched by Cancer so feel very driven to have the opportunity to ride the + 40000 miles; the student have to raise $2500.00 to be donated to the research lab at the University, they are only able to do the ride once, and spend most of the school year training and raising the money needed, and get to Alaska just in time to return home in time to start the new School year. They are a very faith filled, very thank full group of young people." Please say a huge thank you to all who made this possible" "Thanks yaal". Many thanks to Annicka Lukawski, Irma Brownlee, Sarah Hamilton, Betty Ann Mullien, and Eleanor Johnson for all the prep work, and many trips up and down the stairs!

-Eleanor Johnson, event co-ordinator.
